

A monthly event: Brotherhood Lunch. What is it?

Brotherhood Lunch is an opportunity offered by Rettoria San Ferdinando for sharing lunch all together once a month, at Rettoria's, piazza Sraffa 6, after the Sunday Holy Mass. A precious occasion of sharing experience, ideals, etc., and making new friends.

The event is mainly - but not exclusively - attended by people from the Bocconi University environment, i.e. by students, teachers, university personnel. Pasta, the first course, is offered by Rettoria. The rest of the meal (e.g. meat, cheese, prosciutto, bread, cakes, beverages, etc.) is contributed by participants in accordance with requirements. Those who intend to participate should write to info@sanferdinando.org

The date of each Brotherhood Lunch is announced at the end of the 12 o' clock Holy Mass in the San Ferdinando university church, on the preceding Sunday, and also on this site.
